

ARRANGES FORMAL OPENING OF BUILDING

Carroll Electric Company Invites Inspection at Plant Tomorrow Night.

With music and a lavishly decked general storehouse, the Carroll Electric Company will formally open to the public its new building at 714 Twelfth street tomorrow night.

The story of this firm is a continued one of sixteen years' endeavor, culminating now in one of the largest electrical concerns operating in the East.
In 1900, the Carroll Electric Company was organized and carried on business in a little shop in the basement of the Bond building, on Fourteenth street.
It was an electrical contracting and engineering company then, and run by Harry R. and Louis D. Carroll, the present heads of the firm. The business expanded, necessitating removal to larger quarters several times in the past few years. With the addition of numerous new departments embracing every feature of electrical service, the three-story structure just finished was made necessary.

It has a frontage of forty-eight feet —more than 40,000 square feet of floor space—a depth of 125 feet. The first floor is occupied by the retail store, having full lines of every electrical domestic device imaginable, for the household, as well as supplies for commercial work. On the second and third floors are the offices, and in the rear ware-rooms on each floor.

The engineering department has been equipped to make complete installations, both underground and overhead, for power plants, refrigeration systems, and other commercial work.

"We are ready to handle competently any electrical work," said Harry R.
Carroll yesterday, and in that sentence sums up the completeness of the concern. Mr. Carroll is now general manager of the company, and in direct charge of the contracting and engineering branches, while Louis D. Carroll is manager of the supply department.

On Monday night interesting displays of electrical goods will be shown in every department, and the entire building open to the public for its inspection and approval. The outside of the structure will be illuminated by powerful searchlights playing on it from across the street.

PATRIOT FINED $2 FOR PRACTICING WITH GUN

Finds Efforts "To Be Prepared" Are Expensive.

SHARON, Pa., March 26.—When Andy Dittman read in the newspapers that every American citizen should know how to handle and shoot a gun in event of war, he purchased a rifle and began practicing in his back yard after placing a target against a post.
A policeman heard the shot and arrested Andy for shooting in the borough limits. He was given a hearing before Burgess J. H. Moody and fined $2 and costs.

Andy turned the gun over to the authorities with the statement that he will join the pacifists.

MANY WOULD-BE SOLDIERS REJECTED

Total of 1,269 Army Recruits Accepted in Ten Days.

A total of 1,269 recruits in the first ten days of the campaign to increase the army to war strength was reported by the War Department today. For the five days of last week the total enlistment was 710 against 559 for the five days of the preceding week.
Three applicants were rejected for physical unfitness for every one accepted, the recruiting report showed.
Adjutant General McCain said that during the week the number of recruiting stations had been increased to 224.
During the coming week he hopes to increase the number to 304.

RED CROSS BAG SALE OPENS WEDNESDAY

A bag sale, the proceeds of which will be used for aiding the distressed in the United States, will be held at Lansburgh's Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the American Red Cross.

Miss Mabel Boardman, whose home, 1801 P street northwest, is being used as a warehouse for the great number of bags of all sizes and descriptions, said today none of the money raised by the sale would be sent abroad.

This is a special fund, and it is hoped to raise a large sum. The bags will range from hand receptacles for totals to enormous clothes bags. The prices will graduate from 25 cents to that many dollars.

Wednesday night, beginning at 9 o'clock, there will be a microphone ball.
Following is the program for the evening affair:

Minuet—The Misses Laura Delano, Gryner Rayburn, Caroline Nash, and Eveline Gleason, and Lieut. Alva Bernhard, Lieut. Edwin Watson, Morris Volk and Montgomery Angell.

Bag Dance—in charge, Miss Gladys Ingals and Miss Frances Hoar.

The bag—What's in it?—
"I was sent—Miss Manuela de Pena, Haglad dance—The Misses Frances Williams, Eleanor Morgan, Frances Moore, Helen Wolcott, and Elizabeth Harding, and Mrs. W. A. Slater, Jr.

"I was sent—Miss Frances Hoar, Haglad dance—The Misses Catherine McClintock, Cora Barry, Caroline Garden-Jones, Ruth Anderson, and Mrs.
Nowbold Noyes.

REFUSED TO TAKE IT AT FIRST, BUT IS NOW GLAD HE CONSENTED

Had lost all faith in medicines, but Decco was working such wonders, consented to try it.

"My daughter brought home a bottle of Decco one day, but I absolutely refused to take any of it, as I had taken so much medicine and tried different doctors without result, so she returned it to O'Donnell's and got her money back. I kept hearing of the wonderful benefits other people around me were getting from it, I had her go back and buy it over again. I am now on my fourth bottle and am in better condition than I've been in years. The rheumatism, pains in my back and limbs, and constipation are much better. Am not bothered with biliousness, coated tongue, foul breath nor heartburn any more. I sleep well and my stomach is much better. I have lived on liquid diet a long time, but now I have a good appetite and eat heartily of solid food.
Am gaining strength, and am caring for two furnaces in my home. That is pretty good for a man 58 years old. I think. The above is the signed statement of Mr. Geo. Schier, 215 P street northwest, who has lived there for years and is well known. He was in business in that neighborhood when the northwest section was but thinly built up. His case shows what power Decco has to restore the system to its strength and normal activity. For weak, rundown, nervous people, or those whose liver and kidneys and bowels are dis-ordered, a continued and run down should invest a dollar in Decco. All the O'Donnell stores sell it. A special representative is a 124 P street store to coun-terclaim it. Sold also in Hyattsville by Ford's Drug Store. In Alexandria by Allen's Drug Store. In Anacostaria by Rury's Drug Store.—Adv.

REBUILDING SALE

AID OUR PROGRESS—Progress and prosperity go hand in hand. Our business has again outgrown the property in which it is housed, and again we must rebuild—enlarge. May 1 the builders take possession of the entire 8th Street Annex, which will be razed to the ground and be supplanted with a modern 6-story structure of steel. The departments there located must be moved to the 7th Street building. Their stocks must be immediately reduced—and the stocks of every other department must likewise be reduced to give a part of their space to the transplanted departments.

SHARE OUR PROSPERITY—We will pay you well to help us make these necessary stock reductions at once throughout the entire store. Every department manager has received their orders, and our daily announcements will convince you that these incomparable values are unmatched. Thousands of other specially-priced lots, too numerous to mention and not advertised, will be displayed around the store and designated by special tickets. Look for them.
